Around April 1, 1999, [redacted] has a meeting about the high density high-efficiency low-voltage power converter program goals and statement of work (SOW). I believe that Richard Eden participated in this meeting. I would like a copy of any documents relating to this meeting. 6. Around June 28, 1999, [redacted] negotiated and finalized a contract for the silicon switch. I would like documents relating to this contract. This contract may be Contract No. MDA-904-99-C-2644/0000. 7. Around August 10, 1999, Bruce Smetana and Richard Eden presented their work on the CMOS FET Switcher to [redacted] and other persons from Fort Meade. I would like copies of any documents relating to this presentation. 8. Around October 12, 1999, [redacted] received a Zip disk including drawing and charts relating to the project. It included several files, including "Explanation of PS Files" (an index of the Power Switcher Files on the Zip Disk) and "Cover Note for Zip Disk." I would like a copy of the files on the Zip Disk and any other related documents. 9. Around January 31, 2000, [redacted] received a Zip Disk via Priority Mail. The Zip Disk included a package mask layer stack-up in a Photoshop file and text and figures of a patent disclosure for 200 amp current switching MOSFET. I would like a copy of the files on the Zip Disk and any other related documents. 10. Around August 25, 2000, [redacted] met with Richard Eden about a "chips-first" approach to implementing current switcher packaging. I would like documents relating to this meeting. 11. Around February 22, 2001, [redacted] held a Silicon Switch Program Review Meeting at the NSA C.P. I would like documents relating to this meeting.
