Dear Mr. Friedman:

Again we are deeply indebted to you for a most stimulating presentation. Each time we have the pleasant experience of hearing you, we recognize how fortunate we are in being able to call upon someone such as you to speak to our CE student officers.

It is almost needless for me to tell you how the ladies were enchanted by your charming talk at the Club. This was the very first occasion on which any of our guest lecturers have indicated their willingness to speak to the "other half of the team". Believe me, the ladies certainly appreciated your thoughtfulness.

Many thanks again for all you have done. Looking forward, with pleasure, to your next visit, I am

As ever,
