

BRIDE

~~TOP SECRET~~

TO BE KEPT UNDER LOCK AND KEY.
NEVER TO BE REMOVED FROM THE OFFICE.

USSR

Ref No: 3/NBF/T180

Issued: /29/1/1952

Copy No: 202

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE RETURN HOME OF S. IRNOVA

From: MOSCOW

To: CANBERRA

No: 10

14 Jan. 1945

To EPMA.

1. To cover all exigencies obtain locally a certificate from a doctor about S. IRNOVA's mental disorder.
2. Take measures to calm her, through her husband, who should convince S. IRNOVA that her return home^(a) is entirely without danger and she^(b) [3 groups unrecovered].
3. Provide for S. IRNOVA's being put on board ship and prevent any possible disorderly behaviour on her part.
4. Also take the necessary precautionary measures and [provide]^(c) reliable escort during the journey. Telegraph day of departure.

[No.] 259
14th January.

GEONADLJ[i]

[T.N and Comment overleaf]

Distribution

- T.N. [a] Literally "to the fatherland", i.e. to Russia.
[b] Or "her".
[c] Inserted by translator.

Comment: [i] Not previously recorded. The only reference to this covername on any lane is one which occurs in a message from NEW YORK to MOSCOW dated 4th December 1944, external serial number 1706, from which it appears that GENNADIJ was in the U.S.A. and in contact with DEVIS. There is of course no evidence as to whether the GENNADIJ in the U.S.A. is the same person as the MOSCOW signatory.
