

WHO MAKES UP THE MISSION ?

A Demographic Breakdown of Civilian Employees at the National Security Agency

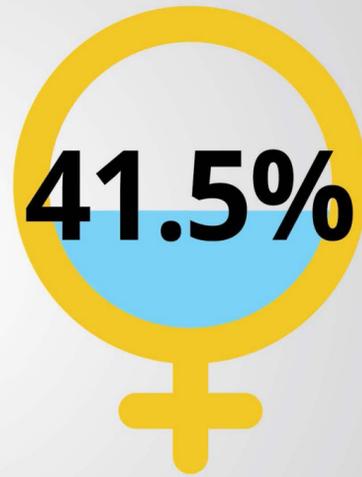

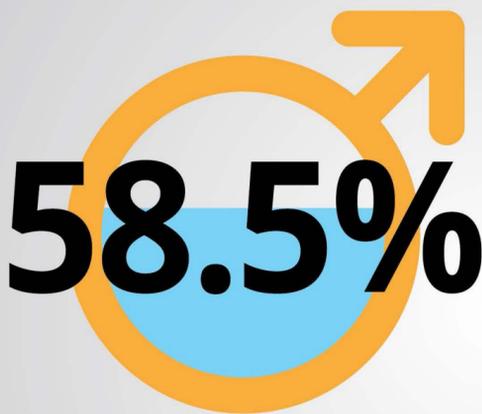

25.2% Minority Breakdown

- 12.5% Black
- 5.4% Hispanic
- 4.0% Asian
- 2.9% Two or More Races
- 0.3% American Indian/Alaska Native
- 0.1% Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander

Overall U.S. civilian labor force recorded by the U.S. Census is 72.8% non-minority and 27.2% minority

Male Female

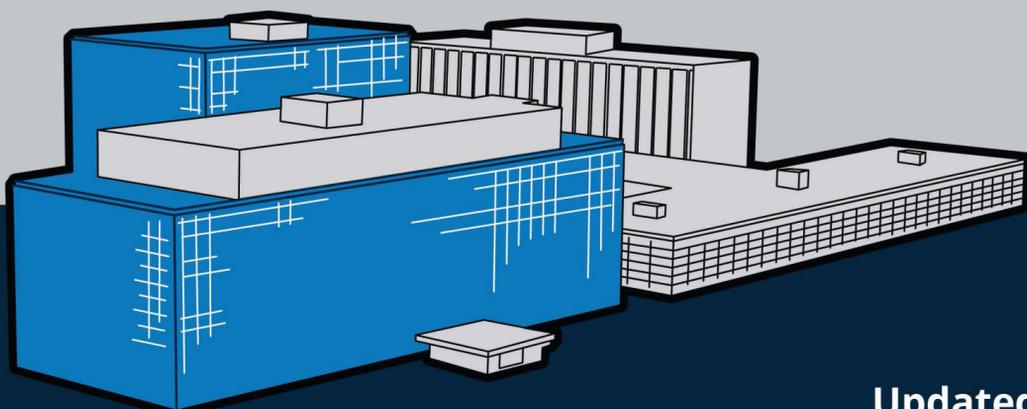

Overall U.S. civilian labor force recorded by the U.S. Census is 53.2% male and 46.8% female

11.5% are Persons with Disabilities

2.6% have a Targeted Disability*

*2.6% out of the entire NSA civilian population, which is also accounted for in the overall 11.5% of persons with disabilities; Includes persons experiencing deafness, blindness, missing extremities, partial paralysis, epilepsy, severe intellectual disabilities, psychiatric disabilities and dwarfism.

Updated: July 2020