

B. Hagelin
 69 Dearfield Drive
 Greenwich, Connecticut
 October 16, 1943.

Dear Bill,

Stu just read me your letter over the phone, and I want to thank you for the very kind and generous words you had for my and Stu's part in the work for the converter.

I have not heard from L.C. Smiths with regard to the presentation ceremony - they may believe be back in Sweden - but I will write Mr. Brown now, and express my hope that they can have me and Stu present at that occasion.

Stu will be very busy the coming week in connection with a local war relief drive, so he cannot be in New York the coming Wednesday. I on the other hand shall be happy, if we could meet in New York, so please let me know when and where. If you are free for luncheon, I would be very glad if you could join me. And if you have to spend your night away from home, please try the facilities at 69 Dearfield Drive - we are not nearly as crowded as the New York hotels! And Annie is now getting so much better, that what she needs most now is to see some of our best friends - and I hope that you could be the first here, since her return from the hospital. Couldn't Elizabeth come with you?

I hope that all is well with you, and so long - until Wednesday!

Sincerely

[Handwritten signature]

Regards to you all from us three!

16
 25
 26 J
 27 uk et

27 -
 Greenwich
 3013
