Dear Mr. McPherson:

The technical papers returned with your letter of 18 February have been received and your receipt has already been sent to you.

Your courtesy in calling my attention to the incompleteness of one of the items sent you is much appreciated. I have no idea as to how that copy got by. If the missing pages handicapped you in your study, and if you wish to take a look at a complete copy again, I will be very glad to make one available.

Reciprocating your kind regards and looking forward to seeing you again soon, I am,

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
Special Assistant
