

Mr. Donald A. Quarles
Assistant Secretary of Defense (R/D)
The Pentagon

Dear Mr. Quarles:

This summer a special study group, under the auspices of the National Security Agency Scientific Advisory Board, worked on a subject of extreme importance to this Agency and to the United States.

The report which this group prepared has only recently been submitted to me in its final form.

I would like to express my appreciation to you for the services of Mr. M. Dean Post and Mr. Charles S. Weaver, of your staff, for their time, efforts and valuable contributions to the success of this project.

Sincerely,

RALPH J. CANINE
Lieutenant General, US Army
Director
