

Clearance of SAB Personnel for NSA 7E3 Exclusion Area

TO: NSA-7E3

FROM: S/ASST (Mr. Friedman) 24 June 54

Comment No. 2

1. Since, as a general rule, neither the members of the NSA Scientific Advisory Board nor any other consultants, experts, or advisors serving NSA require regular access to the Exclusion Area of Rooms 2058-2066, B Building, AHS, it is recommended that all of them be considered "inactive" as far as access to those areas is concerned.

2. Some of the members of the Board as well as other consultants may have a need to enter those areas in the future. Past experience indicates that it is unlikely that any such consultant would attempt to gain entry to an Exclusion Area without first clearing it with a responsible NSA official.

3. It is recommended that NSA-70 initiate a notice to the NSA activities that the agency official who requests the service of any consultant who may need to visit the Exclusion Area is responsible for making the necessary arrangements with NSA-70 at least a day in advance of each proposed visit. In this way it is felt that the principle of "the need to know" will be upheld, that NSA-70 will have sufficient time to make any checks necessary, and that any possibility of embarrassment to the consultant will be avoided.
