Dear Al:

As promised, I am lending you my file on newspaper and periodical clippings on the Petersen case. Some clippings are still arriving, one or two having come to me just this afternoon, but I doubt that the latecomers after this will contain any information of significance not already in the file.

When the file has served your purposes, please let me or my office know and we'll send someone to pick it up.

It was nice to have you as my guest at the Cosmos Club yesterday. General Canine joins me in sending you cordial greetings.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
