M/R: This data is provided to the Defense Appropriations Subcommittee of the House as the result of a request made during the subcommittee hearing on the NSA FY 1962 Budget.

O. D. WILSON/COMP-4/3181/8 Mar 61/dpt

Declassified and approved for release by NSA on 10-21-2013 pursuant to E.O. 13526
"Vice President Nixon points out that the Russians still have not presented official proof to support their claim of crash-landing a rocket on the moon. Nixon told newsmen in New York City last night that none of us really know that it is on the moon.

"(Nixon also told newsmen that this latest Russian space exploit -- in his words -- is 'nothing to get hysterical about'. He emphasized that scientifically and educationally, we are well ahead of the Soviets. But he pointed out that in science, sometimes we're ahead and sometimes they're ahead . . . But that over-all, we are ahead.)"

"(The Vice President also disclosed that the Russians had tried and failed 3 times in the last 2 weeks to land a rocket on the moon. He said Saturday's attempt was the 4th . . . and apparently it was successful.)"
