REDACTED~~SUBJECT NUMBER

USCIB: 29.9/9      Item 2 Considered at the Twentieth (Special) Meeting of USCIBEC, held on 13 October 1954.

Subject:

The CHAIRMAN presented this problem for discussion, adding that he has received information to the effect that the base rights request package may be approved very soon. He said it is his view that the CIA, STATE, and NSA members should look into the matter and, if it appears that  might be able to influence the decision (i.e. may be able to object successfully to the  rights) then we should go ahead with our previously stated intention to . If, on the other hand, it appears that 's weight is not well considered within the  Government, then he suggested that the offer of  be cancelled.

This item to be continued on the agenda.

The meeting adjourned at 1200.
