REMARKS I think we should deal with the two proposals separately. Unless we have a good reason I would hesitate to dissolve SCAG before it starts which would be the case if we were to act now. To date we have not proceeded beyond the point of orientation. It seems to me the best

way to encourage SCAG is to give prompt consideration to all proposals. Therefore I think we should deal as soon as possible with the recommendation contained in Engstrom's letter of 12 December. Speakman has intimated to me that the other RDP committees are beginning to prove useful though I gathered initially they floundered around considerably. What SCAG needs, like most other things, is some good positive leadership.

REMARKS

1. After brief talk with Engstrom this morning, during which he intimated that a rec was going to be made to dissolve SCAG as a formal body, I think we can put both these papers in suspense for a few days.
2. If you concur, please return these to me + I will hold them in my suspense file.
