department or agency of the United States of which he has knowledge or which has been published in the Code of Federal Regulations or in the Federal Register, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than two years, or both. The provisions of this section are in addition to, and do not supersede, other laws.

Sec. 2. The head of any executive department, independent establishment, or other agency may authorize the disclosure of information not declared to be secret or confidential by statute in the custody of his department, establishment, or agency to particular persons or classes of persons or to the public generally. The provisions of section 1 of this Act shall not apply to disclosures so authorized.
