1. Purpose

The Armed Forces Security Agency is established in order to provide for the placing under one authority the conduct of communication intelligence and communication security activities (hereinafter referred to as cryptologic activities) within the National Military Establishment, except those which are to be conducted individually by the Departments of the Army, Navy, and Air Force.

2. Composition

a. The AFSA shall consist of such facilities, units and military and civilian personnel of the armed forces which are or may be used for, or engaged in communication intelligence or communication security activities, including the Headquarters, Army Security Agency (ASA), Arlington, Virginia, the Communications Supplementary Activity (CSAW), Washington, and any comparable organizations of the Air Force, and such other facilities, units and personnel as the Joint Chiefs of Staff may determine as necessary to fulfill the functions herein assigned.

b. The Armed Forces Communications Intelligence Advisory Council will:

   (1) Recommend to the Joint Chiefs of Staff policies and operating plans for the production of communications intelligence which will insure the provision of:

      (a) Authentic information for planners and policy makers within the National Military Establishment and other Governmental Agencies having membership on the United States Communication Intelligence Board; to apprise them of the realities of the international situation, war-making capabilities, vulnerabilities and intentions of foreign countries, and to eliminate the element of surprise from an act of aggression by another country.

      (b) The unique information essential to the several services for the successful prosecution of war and vital to a shortening of the period of hostilities.

   (2) Recommend to the Joint Chiefs of Staff the facilities, personnel, and fiscal and logistic support to be provided by the services to AFSA; such recommendations to be based on requirements as determined by the Director, AFSA.

   (3) Determine and coordinate joint cryptologic military requirements.

   (4) When unanimity cannot be reached substantive matters shall be referred to the Joint Chiefs of Staff for resolution, procedural matters shall be determined by the chairman.

c. Subject to the authority and direction of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Director, Armed Forces Security Agency, will formulate and implement plans, policies, and doctrines relating to communication intelligence and communication security for the Armed Forces, and perform such other functions as the Joint Chiefs of Staff may direct, including the following:

   (1) Operational control of all AFSA facilities, units and military personnel; and operational and administrative control of all AFSA civilian personnel.

(4) Formulation of policies for: (i) transmission security and communications cover and deception; (ii) cryptographic security; (iii) physical security of cryptographic material; (iii) cryptographic countermeasures.

(5) Evaluation of violations of cryptographic security; determination of extent of compromise; and remedial action through appropriate channels.

(6) Investigation of the means employed for clandestine communications; and preparation, detection, and processing of secret inks, microphotographs, and open codes and ciphers.

(7) Liaison with appropriate departments and agencies, for the purpose of coordinating cryptographic equipment and procedures.

(8) Preparation, for review and approval by the Research and Development Board, of coordinated programs for research and development of cryptographic equipment under the cognizance of AFSA and, when approved, action to implement those programs.

(9) Preparation, for review and approval by the Munitions Board, of coordinated programs, including industrial mobilization planning, for the procurement of cryptographic equipment under the cognizance of AFSA and, when approved, action to implement those programs.

(10) Preparation of technical publications pertaining to subjects peculiar to AFSA.

(11) Preparation of technical training programs and establishment of training standards for AFSA.

(13) Technical supervision of all communication security activities of the armed forces.

(14) Provision of technical support of the Army, Navy, and Air Force in their conduct of cryptologic activities.

(15) Preparation of budgetary and other fiscal requirements of AFSA, coordination of such requirements with the participating services, and the presentation of such requirements to the Joint Chiefs of Staff through the AFCLAC. Such requirements for AFSA as may be approved by the Joint Chiefs of Staff will be included in the recommendation made by the Joint Chiefs of Staff to the Secretary of Defense on budgetary matters.

d. The Departments of Army, Navy, and Air Force will:

(1) Take necessary action to facilitate the efficient and economical operation of AFSA, such action to include assignment of personnel and furnishing of facilities, equipment, and fiscal and logistic support. The respective Secretaries are hereby authorized to issue such orders as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this directive.

(2) Fixed intercept installations as authorized by the Joint Chiefs of Staff will be provided by the Army, Navy and Air Force. Such installations will be manned and administered by the service providing them, but will be operationally directed by AFSA.

(3) Mobile intercept facilities of the Army, Navy, and Air Force will be manned, administered, and operationally controlled by the individual service. They may also be used to perform special missions for AFSA as determined by the Director thereof.

(4) The Army, Navy and Air Force will provide communication facilities required for joint use. The crypto-material utilized in such facilities will be furnished by AFSA and will be operated and maintained by the individual service.
(5) The Army, Navy, and Air Force will assign military personnel to AFSA for a period of not less than thirty months, reserving the right to add, withdraw, or substitute personnel, within limitations of personnel requirements of AFSA, and subject to agreement by the Director AFSA. In accordance with existing law, the administration of military personnel of the Army, Navy, and Air Force assigned to AFSA will be a responsibility of the Army, Navy, and Air Force, respectively.

(6) The Army, Navy, and Air Force will continue to be responsible for all such cryptologic activities as are required by intra-service or joint needs (e.g., communication intelligence field processing, intercept, research and development, training, etc.) and are determined by the Joint Chiefs of Staff not to be the sole responsibility of AFSA. They will at all times keep the Director, AFSA, fully informed concerning all such activities.

(7) Cryptologic activities which are determined by the Joint Chiefs of Staff to be the sole responsibility of AFSA will not be undertaken or continued by the Army, Navy, or Air Force individually.

4. Implementation

a. The consolidation of those parts of several service agencies which will constitute the AFSA will be effected under the direction and control of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, with the minimum loss of continuity of operations. It shall be initiated not later than 1 July 1949 and completed not later than 1 January 1950. When the consolidation has been completed the Joint Chiefs of Staff will so inform the Secretary of Defense.
