NSA-MATH

Dear Dick,

Since you were my original contact with Mr. Friedman, I am sending this prodigal through you, principally because of the possible security aspects.

I have labelled the envelope containing the article CONFIDENTIAL. I hope the article proves to be unclassified. I have tried to make it so. It was a great challenge to do, and I hope it isn't too far from what Mr. Friedman wanted.

Sincerely,
