This is only one of many such reports that have been prepared by the British. All have been brought to the attention of the A7147 page. Some are filed in C Branch. In the cryptanalytic file, the British have made extensive studies of the German set-up and I think we would do best to learn that field to the getting report from them and/or Venereal operatively, we -