According to what the Finnish Attache' has intercepted from American diplomatic agencies in Finland, the Allies are now concentrating troops in Corsica and Sardinia. The fact that in the period covering 30 and 31 March, three convoys (one was made up of 60 or 70 ships) passed through the Straits of Gibraltar and entered the Mediterranean is believed to be connected with the above. However, it does not appear that the opening of the (? real ?) second front is imminent.
