From: Peking
To: Tsingtao
21 November 1941
(Purple)

(Translator's note: message somewhat garbled).

?

Clues have been obtained here regarding telegraphic codes used at present by the British Embassy. These codes apparently are used for communication between Shanghai, Chungking, Hongkong, and London. It is possible that these have already been decoded by the North Army, however, they may have some value. The codes are: