Dear Mr. Winkler:

Thanks for your kind letters of November 24 and their enclosures. I found the Rowlett material particularly interesting.

I passed on to Dr. Hadsel the material sent for him. He thanks you for it and sends his regards.

Royster also asked to be remembered to you. He supplied me with the enclosed bibliography.

I hope that you will enjoy the first volume of THE MARSHALL PAPERS when you receive it from Johns Hopkins Press. Everyone here at the library is very proud of it.

Sincerely yours,

John Jacob
Archivist
