Please refute the following: 1) American aid is dangerous because it is conditional. Please read articles published in the on 1st and 8th December 1963. American relations have deteriorated because of the injustice of the American Administration, aggravated by the accusation against following the death of President Kennedy and by the American refusal to guarantee and integrity. 2) The closing in London is not a political measure but an economic one. Relations will continue and the British Ambassador in India has been so informed.
