The dramatic EXEMPT of KENNEDY's (B val made) an immense impression and (B val caused) profound grief in EXEMPT An impressive line of citizens, including military personnel in uniform, went to sign the register displayed in the American Embassy. Many, especially women, carried bouquets of flowers which they left at the foot of the table EXEMPT the big register.

The procession, which started again today, lasted yesterday and the day before yesterday from the early hours of the morning until around midnight.

Radio, television, and the press gave lengthy comments on the late president, reporting his biography and stressing his intellectual qualities, poise, and courage, not hiding the concern over the grave loss EXEMPT will be represented at the funeral by Vice Chairman of the EXEMPT and EXEMPT (B val EXEMPT) Vice Chairman of the EXEMPT and EXEMPT (B val EXEMPT) Vice Chairman of the EXEMPT while Prime Minister EXEMPT accompanied by EXEMPT went to the United States Embassy in EXEMPT to present the condolences of the EXEMPT Government. As for the EXEMPT immediately on Friday evening, as soon as I heard the news EXEMPT telegraphed the United States EXEMPT to express my profound condolences and those of all EXEMPT Saturday morning in addition I sent to a letter of condolence expressing the same EXEMPT sentiments. Today I shall attend in the cathedral with all the other EXEMPT the funeral mass in memory of the late president. Along with the other Western representatives, EXEMPT had the flag flown at half mast.

3/07 T3652-63

THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS 2 PAGE(S)