No: 164

14 April 1944

To VIKTOR[1]

On 14 April at 2 a.m. the deserter LEN⁸ escaped from the ship "OLA," taking advantage of propitious "row" -- people sharing bunks and of the temporary absence from the exterior guard post of the duty seaman KhOKhLOV. It was established that LEN⁸ had already [C% left] but where exactly wasn't known. [We][a] entrusted to the boatswain MANUILOV the task of making enquiries [3 groups unrecovered]: About 11 a.m. MANUILOV met LEN⁸ leaving the house. LEN⁸ reproached MANUILOV for not dissuading him from the visit to the Soviet ship and said that while
