To VIKTOR[...]

A meeting took place with "METALLIST"[ii] after his four-day stay in the Norwegian camp at GOTTRORA[GOTTRORA][iii]. Besides the three courses previously mentioned, taking part[a] in courses there still are military political leaders who have already been studying[b] [4 groups unrecovered] the first batch of students to pass[PERVYJ VYPUSK][c]. The military political leaders, fifty in number, who have passed out from these courses are for the time being in camps as political leaders[POLITRUKI] with Norwegian military formations[d]. The total strength in the Norwegian camp at GOTTRORA is nearly 2,000 men and in all the Norwegian camps in SWEDEN there must be at least 10,000 men. The construction of new camps for Norwegians is proceeding at a number of places and in particular

VALERIAN[viii]

Notes: [a] Literally "still working".

[b] Or "occupying themselves with/engaged on".

[c] The translation of this sentence should be treated with considerable reserve; its present incomplete state makes it susceptible of numerous different interpretations, and only knowledge of the situation obtaining at the time will permit the correct one to be chosen.

[d] "VOENNE SÖRDINENIS", the term used here, is the exact equivalent of the English term "formation" i.e. division and above. It seems unlikely, however, that formations in this sense of the word existed in interment camps.

Comments: [i] VIKTOR: Lt. Gen. P.M. FITIN.

[ii] METALLIST: ✓ i.e. "METAL-WORKER"; unidentified. First occurrence.

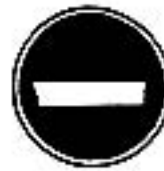

[iii] GOTTRÖR: 59.45N : 18.25E, SWEDEN.

[iv] MÅLSÄKER: An estate and castle on the island of SELÅÖ, north of MARIEFRED.
