ACCOUNT OF DOCKER'S MEETINGS WITH CANOPIUS AND HALPERIN.

FROM: NEW YORK
TO: MOSCOW
No: 1333
18 Sept. 1944

CANOPIUS [KANGP] [i], a representative of the BANK [BANK] [ii], [1 group unrecovered] DOCKER [DOCKER] [iii] with a view to [2 groups unrecovered] his views about the strength of ROMANIA. DOCKER too candidly [2 groups unrecovered] [iv] stating that the future of ROMANIA depends solely upon good neighbourly relations with us [v], and that any intervention on the part of the COUNTRY [VIANA] [vi] (and) [b] the ISLAND [OINOV] [vii] to help the penetration thither of capitalist interests and the support of the capitalists [already] [viii] existing in ROMANIA will lead to the re-establishment of Fascism and the creation of conditions for a new war. CANOPIUS [KANGP - sic] listened to all DOCKER said [2 groups unrecovered] avoiding comments. D.'s request [1 group unrecovered] journey to [his] [b] homeland C. [viii] [1 group unrecovered] consent, but said that it is necessary to get beforehand our [ix] [29 groups unrecovered] with SERGIOUS [SERGEY] [xi] they were still not frank enough to allow us to control his conduct. D. also met HALPERIN [GHIPIRIN], a GIBLETTIUS [GONIBERTS] [xii] of the ISLAND [vii], who mainly referred to his intention to travel. At D.'s request H. [xiii] promised to obtain [xii] an article from MANSU [xiii] for publication in the magazine "LIFET". I will report further information later.

745

MAY [MAJ] [xiv] 18 September

Distribution

S/NBP/1112
[2 Pages]
T.N. [a] An alternative rendering is: "depends upon exceptionally good neighbourly relations with us".
[b] Inserted by translator.
[c] TUBA (i.e. into ROMANIA).
[d] "to obtain" or "to receive". [POLICE].

Comments: [i] KANGE: unidentified.
[lii] DOKER: Charles A. DAVILA (Romanian).
[liii] STRANA: U.S.A.
[iv] GREAT BRITAIN.
[v] SERGEU: Vladimir Georgievich KRAVINT.
[vi] KONKURENT: Member of a non-Soviet counter-intelligence service.
[vii] Romanian National Peasant Party Leader who, as Prime Minister of a Democratic coalition government in 1944, tried to arrange a separate armistice with the United States and Great Britain because he feared Soviet intentions in Romania.
[viii] MD': Pavel PEDOSIMOV.