To VIKTOR.

STUKACH<sup>[i]</sup> can leave for the West for a meeting with NICK[NIK]<sup>[ii]</sup>. We can ask GIFT[DAR]<sup>[iii]</sup> for the address. We await your [1 group unrecovered].

No. 563

PLUMB[LOT]<sup>[iv]</sup> from RAJDER's<sup>[v]</sup> [REJDER]<sup>[x]</sup> group advises that the recognition of the provisional government of RAS[RAS]<sup>[v]</sup> was to a considerable extent the result of the pressure of the most conservative elements beginning with LEAHY<sup>[vi]</sup> and ending with CALIPH[KALIF]<sup>[vii]</sup> and OTs<sup>[viii]</sup>, who only a few months ago were coming out against recognition. Now these people see in RAS a reactionary figure capable of setting up an anti-Soviet bloc after the war. Notwithstanding the de facto recognition CAPTAIN[KAPITAN]<sup>[viii]</sup> is suspicious of RAS fearing the possibility of the creation of a military dictatorship.

Comments: [i] STUKACH: the literal meaning is something like "knocker" from STUK - "knock" or "rap". STUKACH is said to be a slang term for "source", STUK being also alleged to be slang for "secret informer" or "M.G.B. agent". STUKACH is identified as Joseph KATS (name changed by court order on 21 Mar. 28, NEW YORK, N.Y.), formerly Joseph HLAT. His father signed himself Hirsha HLAT after coming to the U.S.A. KATZ claims that the name was originally CHLAT. Born 15 Mar. 1912 (whether old or new style is uncertain) in SVENTSYANY (Polish SWIECZANY, Lithuanian SVENCIONYS), SVENTSYANSKIJE JEZD, VILENSKAYA GUBERNIYA in the Russian Empire. Son of Hirsha (born in SVIR) and Bedana HLAT, originally CHLAT. U.S. citizen by naturalisation of father, 19 Feb. 1925, Common Pleas Court, Patterson, New Jersey. Married Bessie BOGORAD in 1936 in LOS ANGELES, California, and has one child, Paula Jo KATZ (born 2 Jan. 41, NEW YORK, N.Y.).
