

Ref No	:	8/1BF/T431
Issued:		18/1/1950
Copy :	Io:	205

EFFECT ON CREWS' DISCIPLINE OF PROTRACTED REPAIRS TO SOVIET SHIPS IN AMERICAN PORTS

From: NEW YORK

To: NOSCOW

No.: 1391 3 October 1944

To SEMEN.

Reference number 501[1], copy to GIFT [DAR][11].

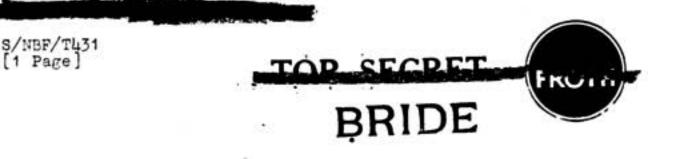

[According to][a] the preliminary plan of ship repairs [According to][a] the preliminary plan of ship repairs in American ports during the autumn and winter period [2 groups unrecovered] of a total [CS number] of more than 70 units 25 fishing hoats and two ice-breakers will require repairs. The majority of these vessels are planning repairs which will take more than 50 [B% days]. It has been noted that protracted repairs and [2 groups unrecovered] [B% ashore] [1 group unrecovered] drop in the efficiency of repairs carried out by the crew [SAMOREMONT]. Inactivity has acted as a cause of [C% demoralisation] of individual persons and also of acts of treason. With a view to avoiding a lowering of discipline [2 groups unrecovered] vessels

[23 groups unrecovered]

PLINT [ZNVOD][iii] to take off and send home the crew with the exception of the captain, chief and second mates, chief, second and third engineers and the boatswain.

[Continued overleaf]

Distribution

S/NBF/T431

2. Members of crews of ships due for less protracted repairs, who are not ongaged on repairs to their ships

- 2 -

[22 groups unrecoverable]

as opportunity offers

[41 groups unrecoverable]

T.N.: [a] Inserted by the translator. M-S Comments: [i] Not at present available. Acc #307 of 20/4/44. [11] DAR: Grigorij KASPAROV.

[iii] ZAVOD: the Soviet Consulate-General in NEW YORK.