RE-ISSUE

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION ON DELEGATES TO A CHURCH SYNOD

From: BOGOTA

To: MOSCOW

No: 120

20 Apr. 45

To VIKTOR. [1] Copy to the 8th Department.

1. Further to our telegram No. 6[a]. According to information received by "MAZUR" [11] from Monsignor CASTRO, counsellor to the head of the Catholic church in COLOMBIA, there is no information among the archbishop's entourage about the synod and delegates from Latin America. CASTRO also said that he did not know of the existence in Latin-America of any organisation of the Armeno-Gregorian church.

2. Enrique MICHELSEN [MICHEL'JEN], who has been appointed counsellor in the embassy in ECUADOR, told "MAZUR" that his uncle, Alfredo MICHELSEN, was agitating for a transfer from MOSCOW to another country. After the conference in SAN FRANCISCO, A. MICHELSEN will probably return to MOSCOW where he will be for 2 or 3 months and then will leave for COLOMBIA until being appointed ambassador to one of the European countries.
