

M9

NRID
Washington - Moscow
1946
No. 390 (11th.; February)

To DEKANOZOV.

Supplementary to our message No. 306 - in another conversation with Comrade ORENKOV, LEON BOBKOWSKI, Second Secretary of the Polish Embassy.

[33 groups unrecoverable]

gave him and PRUBZYNSKI the job of getting acquainted with employees of the Soviet Embassy and reporting to him on the content of their conversations. On the question of organizing the work of the Polish Embassy and the assignment of duties among his colleagues, LANGE consults with an American citizen, an employee working in the financial section, one BLOCH, who had been a personal friend of LANGE's.

For the post of Counselor of the Embassy LANGE plans to propose a certain Professor ^{OW} BEZMANSKI, of Pittsburgh. For the post of Secretaries of the Consul at Pittsburgh, KWIECIN, and Doctor RUDZINSKI, who is working as a legal consultant, at Pittsburgh.

Spec. No. 290.

NOVIKOV

KWIESZEN

[Translated by Condray.]