EVATT'S CONVERSATION WITH THORNTON ON THE PROSPECTIVE APPOINTMENT OF A NEW AUSTRALIAN MINISTER TO THE SOVIET UNION.

From: CANBERRA

To: MOSCOW

No.: 100

8 March 1946

To VICTOR. To 8th Department.

"CLAUDE [KLOD]" reported that EVATT called in THORNTON [TORNTON] (member of the local "FRATERNAL [BRATSKAYA]" [,] leader of the Ironworkers' Union[a]) for a talk. EVATT asked THORNTON his opinion on the person whom he was expecting could be appointed as the new Australian Minister to the Soviet Union. T.[1], as CLAUDE recounted, did not answer E. at once and promised to think [about it][b].

Then T. the other day saw
