

CLIP 4:

As you may know I've now spent two years as the General Counsel here. And I continue to be humbled by, and frankly in awe, of the extraordinary sense of mission and zeal for protecting our country that's displayed by, really, everyone in the agency. And that's accompanied by a scrupulous adherence to the many rules that govern our operations.