115111	10/24/2022	Looking for amplifying information on the alleged activities with the Soviets by Major Linn M. Farish. Farish was an OSS operative who died in a plane crash in the Balkans in late 1944. Prior to that, he was very active in OSS efforts inside Yugoslavia. He submitted a report in October 1943 that was very favorable to the communist Partisan resistance efforts. His final report in July 1944 was exactly opposite and said that he worried about further support for the Partisans. He was implicated in Venona releases as being "Attila." Would like to see what documents support that, and what sort of information he actually provided to the Soviets. As far as have been able to ascertain, he was implicated in two reports as "Attila" although have not been able to find those two reports, and would like to see those as well. Any further information that can be provided on his spy work for the Soviet Union prior to his death would be very appreciated. Date Range: 1930-1944	Requester did not respond to fee letter
