

ANNIE HAGELIN

* 1 December 1888

† 29 November 1966

Sist, min Gud, jag till dig beder
Tag min hand uti din hand.
Så att du mig alltid leder,
Förer till ditt fröjdeland
Varest ändas allt besvär.
Och när loppet slutat är,
Och jag dig min ande sänder,
Tag den då i dina händer.

Dear Elizabeth and Bill,
I was very much touched by the expressions of devotion to the memory of my beloved Annie, and of sympathy for me, that your letter brought me. I need not repeat, how hard this tragedy has struck me. But I realize that I must strive to overcome the first grief and bitterness, and seek strength from all memories of Annie's love and devotion to me. - It was a consolation for me that Annie was happy

- till the end of her life. She was calm and in good humor during her last stay in the hospital.

And she passed away without any forebodings or pain, so it was a merciful death. Karl Wilhelmus was present when this happened,
- I was just away to buy birthday
presents for Annie.

I thank you again for all the friendship you have given us both.

Affectionately yours,
1
