

Dear Elizabeth and Bill,

I should have written long ago to thank you for your letters, but I wanted to wait until it was time to send Bill my very best wishes for his anniversary, which understand will take place on the 24th.
The best I can wish is good health, and I do hope and trust that this has improved some more since you wrote me - the last letter from you both was on Sept 3.

Elizabeth wrote that "if it weren't for the Taraps and the David Kalin's, life would be more attractive". Well - Kalin hunted me up, & where he couldn't find me in Zug, he got hold of me in Town, where I passed a night on my way from Sweden to Zug. This time he did not try to pump me, but wanted to show me his new book, and I must say that I dislike his style.

Examples: under photos of myself and of Samm the captions were "who got rich", - and "an unsuccessful inventor". Pretty disgusting

I haven't heard anything more from Ho, and you are right that one can be glad that Annie has been spared this trouble - she wouldn't have been able to take it, in the feeble condition she was after her operation.

I am in good health, but otherwise I feel like walking alone in a desert.

With affectionate regards from your old friend Woods'
