Mr. Boris C.W. Hagelin Crypto A.G. Weinbergstrasse 10 Zug, Switzerland

Dear Boris:

Thank you very much for your letter of 20 November, which was a bit delayed in reaching me because of a typing error you made in the address on the envelope. You wrote "210" instead of "310," and our postmen around here are not too bright.

ECRET

EO 3.3(h)(2)

PL 86-36/50 USC 3605 When I was with Bo and Edith last September, there was a plan for Edith to take the children this winter or early spring of 1955 to the U.S. for a visit with their grandparents on this side of the Atlantic. Is the plan materializing? If so, is there a possibility that Bo would come along with them? Naturally, I wouldn't want to miss him by being in Europe myself at the same time that he is over here, as I assume that he would come to Washington, too, if only to visit with Art and Ingrid.

REAR

Both Elizabeth and I have been working quite long hours, trying to finish up the book--the finishing touches are many, sometimes annoying or bothersome, but have to be done.

As I told you in my last letter, the Britannica article was found acceptable, despite my going much beyond the limits of length set by them (6,000 words). I went beyond 8,500, and certainly expected a strenuous objection from them. Imagine my astonishment and pleasure when, instead of a stern request to cut it to the length stipulated, they not only accepted the article but also followed up the acceptance by one of the shortest but nicest letters I ever received. That will explain why I am so immodest as to show below a copy of the Britannica letter for your information and possible pleasure in anticipation of receipt of the copy of the article. I am going to ask them for a few actual reprints or "offsets" as they are called over here, and you shall have one, of course. Also, and of course, an autographed copy of our book--when, as, and if published!

I hope you all had a nice visit to Paris and Madrid. And, of course, Elizabeth and I both hope that you all will have a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! Love to Annie and affectionate greetings to you from both of us.

Mr. William F. Friedman 310 Second Street, S.E. Washington 3, D.C.

Dear Mr. Friedmans

We have always felt that the article CODES AND CIFHERS was a "showpiece" of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, and after reading your new revision we feel this is so more than ever.

Sincerely yours,

John V. Dodge Managing Editor
