 Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral Hooper:

In regard to your membership on the Telecommunications Panel of the National Security Agency Scientific Advisory Board, I am very pleased to be able to tell you that the processing required for granting access to National Security Agency matters has been completed.

We would now like to acquaint you with the highlights of our current organization and its staff, and make a detailed presentation of some of our technical problems. A two-day visit to the Agency should be sufficient for this purpose, and it can be arranged at any time convenient to you.

If you will let me know three or four weeks in advance of the date you would like to make this visit, and tell me the mode of travel you prefer, we will have the necessary invitational orders sent to you.

With cordial greetings and hoping to renew our acquaintance, I am,

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
 Executive Secretary
 NSA Scientific Advisory Board
