My dear M. de Chauny:

The very prompt action taken by your secretary, in response to my letter of 6 September 1954, makes me a grateful debtor to both of you.

Besides wishing to thank you and your secretary I write you now to ask you to tell me how much I owe for the book purchased for me, so that I can square our financial account. I shall add the cost of postage to that account and remit by check.

The book proved to be quite interesting, though bizarre, and we shall be able to make good use of it in our own forthcoming book on Shakespeare.

With my best thanks and cordial greetings, I am,

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
