Dear Mr. Mitchel:

I have on hand about twenty-five or thirty copies of the full-size volume of the Universal Trade Code published way back in 1921. Would these be of any use to you in your business and if so, what would you offer for the lot?

It is a long time since we have exchanged any letters. I hope this one finds you in good health and still doing lots of business at the old stand. As you will perhaps surmise, I am still going strong in the Department of Defense establishment.

Hope to hear from you and with my cordial greetings,
I am

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
