Major General W. M. Breckinridge, USA
Chief, US Army Security Agency
Arlington Hall Station
Arlington 12, Virginia

Dear Bill:

In response to your letter of 9 March 1961, the Director, DSB, has indicated he welcomes your visit and will obtain all necessary Commonwealth concurrences.

Please let us know when further information becomes available concerning the others who may accompany you and any particular subjects you may wish to discuss with DSB.

I will arrange for a representative of NSA to accompany you for the period of your visit to Australia. We can work out the details at a later date, prior to your departure.

Sincerely,

cc: Director ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~
