

25 March 1951

Mr. William Friedman

I was present at some of the lectures you presented at Brooks AFB during the week 12-16 March and enjoyed them very much. While the impressions you had given me were yet fresh on my mind I read an article entitled 'Roosevelt and the Far East' by Sumner Welles in the February issue of Harper's magazine which made reference to the subject you had spoken on. Also in the March 17, issue of Saturday Review of Literature on page 17 there is a review of a book entitled "The Scholar Adventurers" by Richard D. Altick published by The Macmillan Co. I thought you might be interested in some of the information in this book as reference material for future lectures. I hope you will lecture again someday when I shall be fortunate to be there.
