Dear Will:

I was very pleased to receive your Christmas card and think it deserves a personal reply.

Noting what you say about your new assignment, I'm also sorry we can't have you with us here. In fact, I'm going to try to make some changes in your future, so don't be too surprised.

Everybody here is working hard and trying to see some daylight ahead, through these times of tension and anxiety about the future.

All the old hands are still here - Sinkov, Clark, Kullback, Rosen, Rowlett, et al. And we miss you. I think your experience would be more useful employed with us than with the AFF Board.

My health has improved very much in recent months, after a pretty rough time early in 1950. I'm soon eligible to retire but think I'll continue on the job as long as I can.

With my very best wishes for the New Year and most cordial greetings, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear friends...

Having finished the Sig C Adv Off Course, I am now enroute to The Army Field Forces Board at Ft Bragg, N. Carolina. Had hoped for ASA or AFSA assignment, but one can't always have good assignments, I suppose.

You don't suppose Gen'l Ike needs an old ASA hand, do you? Ha!

Best regards,
Wil

To wish you a very happy

CHRISTMAS

JOYOUS NEW YEAR
