

CX-705

27 December, 1927.

From: Commandant.
To: Major F.F. Friedman, Signal Corps, U.S. Army (via Chief Signal Officer of the Army).
Subject: Lecture at Coast Guard Academy.

1. The Superintendent of the Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., has advised me of the interesting and instructive lecture delivered by you at that institution on December 18th. Headquarters values the benefit derived by the officers and cadets from such talks as given by you, and I wish to express my appreciation of your interest and courtesy in delivering the lecture.

F. C. BILLARD

Rear Admiral, U.S. Coast Guard.
