

A No date

Hagelin grants to United States full rights of Patent No. 2,089,603, (M-209) subject to existing license to the Hagelin Cryptograph Company.

B 26 September 1942

Hagelin Cryptograph Company grants to the United States their rights under license of Patent No. 2,089,603, therefore. United States now has full rights of Patent No. 2,089,603. Now in U.S. Government.

C 26 September 1942

Hagelin grants to United States a royalty free license without limitation as to time Patent Application No. 701,404. Also Patent No. 2,089,603 improvements. Also royalty free license without limitation as to time of Patent No. 2,247,170, 24 June 1941.

D 26 September 1942

United States grants to Hagelin a royalty free license to, under claims of Patent No. 2,089,603, manufacture machines under Patent No. 2,247,170 for a life of letters patent.

E 26 September 1942

Hagelin Cryptograph Company holding an exclusive license under Patent No. 2,247,170 grants to the United States a non-exclusive royalty free license for the term of letters patent.

F 26 September 1942

Hagelin grants to the United States royalty free non-exclusive license Patent No. 2,247,170.

G

Hagelin grants to the United States a time-limited royalty free non-exclusive license to U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 286,286.