Dr. Herbert J. Sanborn
Exhibits Office
Library of Congress
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Dr. Sanborn:

Thank you for bringing to my attention the forthcoming exhibit of rapid methods of transmission of documents in connection with the meeting of the American Documentation Institute on February 15. Copies of the literature which you sent me have been distributed within our own Agency, and additional copies have been forwarded to the appropriate offices within the Departments of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force.

I am very sorry that pressure of duty prevents my attendance at the lecture to be given by Dr. Evans, and at the general session of the Institute. As you indicate, the exhibit is of timely interest in connection with the proposed dispersal of Government agencies, and I am certain that all who attend will gain a great deal of useful and pertinent information.

Please convey a greeting from me to Dr. Evans and tell him I hope to see him sometime soon at one of the Book Club meetings.

With cordial greetings to you, I am,

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
