Report by [State Board] Committee on an Armed Forces Communication Intelligence Agency 30 Dec 1948

7 "In connection with measures to increase Communication Security and the Communications Intelligence effort, the Committee recommends that the proposed legislation contained in 80th Congress bills S 2853 (Amendment to Federal Communications Act of 1934) and S 2860 (Cryptographic Security Bill) be enacted."

A- General

B- Relevant Legislation, Directives, and Agreements

1. The National Security Act of 1947 lays the basis for joint action of the Armed Forces and also charges each of the Services individually with certain functions and responsibilities in the scheme of national defense. It specifically provides "... that the Departments and other agencies of the government shall continue to collect, evaluate, correlate, and disseminate departmental intelligence."
