REMARKS Apparently this — or something similar — has been brought to C. I. Herrelko's attention. He told me yesterday that he is taking action to broaden NSA's training scope to include IEEE considerations.

[No specific provision made in NSC 168 to cover training, hence NSA is doing what it can to insert the TNS idea where & when it can (w. J. Gibson → Mr. Friedman)]

REMARKS from Judging the AG's files of NSA Regs. & Circulars, there are no corresponding provisions established for COMSEC training. Does NSA have the authority to expand their training scope to include COMSEC? If not, why not? How can NSA prescribe minimum training standards for Tactical COMINT operational training - as apparently included in para. 1a of sect. III? JGW
