Mr. David A. Salmon
Chief of Communications and Records Division
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Salmon:

In accordance with our telephone conversation recently, I am sending you herewith a copy of the "Course in Cryptography" ⁽¹⁾ and of "The Contribution of the Cryptographic Bureaus in the World War." ⁽²⁾ I would appreciate it if after you have looked these over, you would forward them to Mr. J. Rives Childs, of the Near Eastern Division for perusal. I would appreciate the return of these books at the end of about three months.

Very truly yours,

William F. Friedman,
