

To

Major Friedman,

Your change of date from the 26th to the 29th
will be all right here.

We will be glad to see you and Major Crawford on Thursday, Oct. 29th between 10 and 10:30 a.m.

Yours,

(signed) Hitt

Dear Colonel Hitt:

O
Many thanks for your note which was received this morning.

A slight change in plans makes it more advisable that Major Crawford and I come to New York on Thursday morning, October 29, rather than Monday morning. I hope that this change will not inconvenience you, but if it does, please do not hesitate to let me know and we will try some other date. The hour set namely between 10:00 and 10:30, is very satisfactory to us.

For your convenience I enclose a self-addressed,
franked envelope.

Sincerely yours,

1 Encl.

My Dear Friedman,

Reference yours of the 2nd, I will be glad to show you the machines on Oct. 26. Let us say 10:00 or 10:30 a.m. if that will suit your convenience.

Yours,

Regards to Crawford who is invited too,
of course.

Dear Colonel Hitt:

On the occasion of your recent visit to this office, you indicated to Colonel Kumpe that you would be glad to demonstrate the cipher machine which was developed by you for the I.T. & T., and which I have long been anxious to see.

Official business requires the presence of Major D. M. Crawford, my immediate superior, and myself at Fort Monmouth the latter part of this month. He would also like to see your machine and we thought it would be nice to combine the visit to your office with that to Fort Monmouth. Would Monday, October 26, be convenient for you, and if so, can you designate the hour? If the date indicated is not convenient for you, what date thereabouts would be?

With cordial greetings, I am

Sincerely yours,
