

Trip Report--Marshall Library, December 1976

Mr. Henry Schorreck, Mr. Robert Benson, and Mr. Vincent J. Wilson, Jr. visited the Marshall Library in Lexington, Virginia, 30 November to 2 December to review the materials in the Friedman Collection. They identified documents and photographs that will be useful in the Agency's cryptologic history effort, and reviewed materials for the accuracy of security classification. All classified materials are retained in a vault and controlled by established security procedures.
