Dear [Redacted]

Enclosed is the document I discussed with you in our telephone conversation of last Thursday. I would be grateful if you could confirm its declassification.

Let me take this opportunity to state in writing something else that I told you over the telephone. There is no record of any researcher ever having copied any part of the six publications from the Friedman Collection which were reclassified by NSA in April, 1983.

Sincerely yours,

John N. Jacob
Archivist
