(U) OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

(U) Chartered by the NSA Director and by statute, the Office of the Inspector General conducts audits, investigations, inspections, and special studies. Its mission is to ensure the integrity, efficiency, and effectiveness of NSA operations, provide intelligence oversight, protect against fraud, waste, and mismanagement of resources by the Agency and its affiliates, and ensure that NSA activities comply with the law. The OIG also serves as an ombudsman, assisting NSA/CSS employees, civilian and military.

(U) AUDITS

(U) The audit function provides independent assessments of programs and organizations. Performance audits evaluate the effectiveness and efficiency of entities and programs and their internal controls. Financial audits determine the accuracy of the Agency's financial statements. All audits are conducted in accordance with standards established by the Comptroller General of the United States.

(U) INVESTIGATIONS

(U) The OIG administers a system for receiving complaints (including anonymous tips) about fraud, waste, and mismanagement. Investigations may be undertaken in response to those complaints, at the request of management, as the result of irregularities that surface during inspections and audits, or at the initiative of the Inspector General.

(U) INTELLIGENCE OVERSIGHT

(U) Intelligence oversight is designed to insure that Agency intelligence functions comply with federal law, executive orders, and DoD and NSA policies. The IO mission is grounded in Executive Order 12333, which establishes broad principles under which IC components must accomplish their missions.

(U) FIELD INSPECTIONS

(U) Inspections are organizational reviews that assess the effectiveness and efficiency of Agency components. The Field Inspections Division also partners with Inspectors General of the Service Cryptologic Elements and other IC entities to jointly inspect consolidated cryptologic facilities.

I. (U) SUMMARY

(U//~~FOUO~~) On 13 December 2012, 14 February and 30 April 2013 the NSA/CSS Office of the Inspector General (OIG) Hotline received anonymous allegations pertaining to a manager and two employees assigned to [redacted] The subject of the allegations received on 13 December 2012 and 14 February 2013 was "nepotism." The subject of the 30 April 2013 allegation was unspecified "fraud, waste and abuse." The complaints alleged that [redacted] was under "great influence" from a subordinate, [redacted] and that this influence caused [redacted] to hire [redacted] son, [redacted] The allegations also asserted that [redacted] lacked appropriate job qualifications for the position for which he was hired; that [redacted] created an internship position to justify the hiring of [redacted] and that [redacted] allowed [redacted] to work unwarranted, unlimited overtime. The OIG initiated an investigation to address these allegations.

(b)(3)-P.L. 86-36

(U//~~FOUO~~) Our investigation established that [redacted] did not influence [redacted] to hire his son, [redacted] but merely offered his son's resume in the hopes of consideration for an interview. [redacted] receives resumes from many I&L affiliates to include managers, peers, and subordinates. [redacted], along with other I&L managers, review many resumes to determine who is best qualified for [redacted] positions, who is interviewed, and who is hired. [redacted] does not have unilateral authority to hire. [redacted] was hired for three reasons; he had the best background, experience and qualifications of 18 resumes reviewed; he scored highest of the three applicants interviewed, and he was the [redacted] of the three applicants offered the developmental [redacted] position who accepted the employment offer.

(b)(6)

(b)(6)

(U//~~FOUO~~) Although the title of the email allegations reported to the OIG was "nepotism," the OIG investigation focused on the actual allegations made in the complaint; whether [redacted] was qualified for the position for which he was hired, whether [redacted] had misused his position by creating an internship program to justify the hiring of [redacted] and whether [redacted] allowed [redacted] to work unwarranted, unlimited overtime.

(U//~~FOUO~~) In addition to obtaining sworn testimony from [redacted], we conducted interviews of [redacted] five other [redacted] employees, and the former Chief, [redacted] We also obtained all pertinent records from the NSA Office of Recruitment, the NSA Office of Human Resources Services and various offices with the NSA Office of Installations and Logistics, and we conducted searches of [redacted] and [redacted] personal storage files (.pst files).

(U//~~FOUO~~) The preponderance of the evidence supports the conclusions that [redacted] did not misuse his position to hire [redacted] that [redacted] did not create an internship program to justify the hiring of [redacted] and that [redacted] did not allow [redacted] to work unwarranted, unlimited overtime.

He gave [redacted] (his father) his resume on numerous occasions to provide to I&L and [redacted] personnel who might be interested in his skills. Leading up to his hire, he was telephonically interviewed for three positions that included the [redacted], a program manager, and member of a [redacted] team. He first met [redacted] when he came to NSA for his hiring interviews leading to his employment. He was never provided [redacted] electrical background before EOD but knows from working with him that he is a capable electrician and will have the appropriate electrical apprenticeship skills to take on the [redacted] job once he completes all of his specialized developmental training. [redacted] was brought in as a junior person so that he could learn all facets of [redacted] duties needed for NSA's highly specialized electrical infrastructure. It took [redacted] a while to grasp all aspects of the [redacted] position but he has made good progress and is capable of working as the apprentice on most job orders. He thinks he's heard that [redacted] will be promoted. He is very comfortable with the promotion and would have provided promotion input if asked to do so. He directly supervised [redacted] from EOD until about November 2012 when [redacted] returned from [redacted]. Before [redacted] returned to [redacted] he had voiced his concern to [redacted] that it would not be a good idea for him to continue supervising [redacted] because this would lead to father and son working in the same work center. (U//~~FOUO~~) He has been assigned to [redacted] for roughly 2.5 years. Over two years ago, there was a discussion in the organization about potentially hiring an [redacted] apprentice into [redacted] to learn all aspects of the [redacted] job. At the time, [redacted] stated that if any of the [redacted] employees knew of a good candidate, to tell the potential applicant to submit their resume to NSA. He did not have any insight into any of the applicants that submitted resumes and did not have any involvement in the hiring process, to include the selection of [redacted]. He assumed that [redacted] was the hiring official for the apprentice position. [redacted] was not part of [redacted] when [redacted] was hired because [redacted] was in [redacted] and joined [redacted] around the beginning of 2013.

He does not see any preferential treatment afforded to [redacted] by [redacted]. Additionally, he does not believe that [redacted] and [redacted] have a close relationship or that [redacted] influenced [redacted] to hire [redacted]. The SOP documents how O/T is tracked and allocated within the The SOP states that O/T assignments will be awarded to the that is both available and has previously accumulated the lowest number of O/T hours as annotated on the O/T allocation log. completion of their training period, the [redacted] will be given the O/T total equal to the highest total on the log (Appendix I).[3]

(U//~~FOUO~~) [redacted] O/T Work Orders and O/T Allocation Spreadsheets. On 3 September 2013 [redacted] provided work orders and spreadsheets that were used to determine which [redacted] are scheduled to work O/T requirements. Records provided were for the period 19 February to 29 August 2013. The records reflect that [redacted] are required to work significant amounts of O/T to support Agency requirements. O/T requirements were analyzed in two timeframes. During the first time frame, 19 February to 18 April 2013, [redacted] were scheduled to work a total of 538.5 O/T hours under 69 work orders and [redacted] was scheduled to work 28 O/T hours or 5% of the total O/T hours allocated. Additionally, the analysis for this timeframe showed that no individual [redacted] worked more than 13% of the total O/T hours offered. On average, each of the 15 [redacted] worked a little more than 6% of the total O/T hours offered. From 1 July to 29 August 2013, [redacted] were scheduled to work a total of 722.5 O/T hours under 83 work orders and [redacted] was scheduled to work 39 O/T hours or 5% of the total O/T hours. Additionally, the analysis for this timeframe showed that no individual [redacted] worked more than 15% of the total O/T hours offered. On average, each of the 16 [redacted] worked a little less than 6% of the total O/T hours offered. These records showed that [redacted] O/T hours supported his training requirements, the O/T he worked always occurred under the supervision of a full performance [redacted] and O/T he worked did not interfere with any other [redacted] ability to work O/T had they voluntarily requested to work O/T. For the two timeframes of O/T work orders reviewed, the records showed that on average [redacted] are afforded a fair share of the allocated O/T hours consistent with [redacted]'s SOP for administration of O/T (Appendix K).

(U) Testimonial Evidence

(U//~~FOUO~~) [redacted]

(U//~~FOUO~~) On 20 May 2013, [redacted] was interviewed and provided the following sworn testimony.

(U//~~FOUO~~) [redacted] is not afforded unlimited O/T but is afforded O/T for training purposes as part of his entry/developmental [redacted] training requirements. [redacted] is technically in an unqualified role and is not authorized to act as a qualified [redacted] and perform [redacted] job duties independently. All of [redacted] O/T for developmental training is tracked and approved by [redacted] O/T policy is fair and has been in place since 2006. All [redacted] can volunteer for O/T. Generally, O/T is available for any [redacted] if they wish to volunteer. O/T is tracked so that [redacted] assignees with the least amount of O/T previously worked are afforded the opportunity to volunteer and work the next O/T offering. He is not aware of any abuses of O/T.

His father approves some of his O/T so he can participate in electrical work orders which are under his father's area of responsibility (AOR). The shop maintains records on O/T allocation and fills out records to document the O/T justification.

(U) Analysis and Conclusions

(U//~~FOUO~~) The records and testimony reflect that is approved to work warranted O/T to fulfill his developmental training requirements. During the two time periods the OIG analyzed, we determined that worked a total of 67 out of the 1,256 O/T hours worked by This represents that he worked only 5.5% of all the total O/T hours that were available to the All of his requests for O/T were approved by management and appeared to be limited to his developmental training. The majority of the witnesses testified there are more O/T hours available than the majority of the wished to work. None voiced any concern about the O/T hours that worked and none thought the O/T hours he worked were excessive. The records demonstrate that approval and use of O/T was controlled and was limited to his developmental training activities.
